Tamilaga Vettri Kazhagam (TVK) is a regional political party in Tamil Nadu and Puducherry, founded on February 2, 2024, by renowned actor-turned-politician Vijay. The party headquarters is located in Chennai.

Vijay is the President of Tamilaga Vettri Kazhagam.

Vijay is a renowned actor who transitioned into politics and founded the Tamilaga Vettri Kazhagam (TVK) party in 2024. He is the current President of TVK and represents the vision for social justice, equality, and progress for Tamil Nadu. TVK aligns with left-of-center values, embracing Ambedkarism, Periyarism, and Marxism. The party supports social justice, secularism, egalitarianism, a two-language policy, and democracy.

The TVK flag features red and maroon at the top and bottom, with a yellow middle section displaying two elephants and a Vaagai flower. This design symbolizes the party's commitment to Tamil culture and heritage.

TVK's core values include social justice, secularism, egalitarianism, democracy, equality, and the elimination of discrimination. The party believes in ensuring rights for all citizens regardless of caste, creed, or religion.

N. Anand serves as the General Secretary of Tamilaga Vettri Kazhagam.

The party headquarters is located in Chennai, Tamil Nadu.

TVK was founded on February 2, 2024.

TVK's vision is to build a just society based on equality, eliminate discrimination, ensure rights for all citizens, and bring progress for Tamil Nadu through social justice, democracy, and egalitarianism.
